Lexington 21 May 1842

Dear Sir.

At the request of Mr. Van Buren, who is now here, I write to inform you that he will leave Louisville on Wednesday the 1st June, in the Mail boat, and arrive at Cincinnati on Thursday morning. I think that some letter has been written stating that he would arrive at Cin. on Tuesday, and this notice is sent to inform you of the change in his arrangements.

He will remain here until Thursday morning next, then go with Col. Johnson to his residence, & on the next day to Frankfort - to Louisville.

Respectfully

Very friend
